YOUR WEALTH MANAGER

Art does not answer questions.
It asks the ones that matter.

We've been listening for 45 years.

Through the Julius Baer Art Collection, we support Swiss contemporary art since 1981 — and we are proud to be Lead Partner of Zurich Art Weekend.

PUBLIC PROGRAM

The public program offers free access to exhibitions and curated events during the weekend. As some events have limited capacity, we recommend securing your spot by registering in advance. Subject to availability, spontaneous attendance is always welcome. Please note a few institutions require entrance fees and for some events, tickets must be purchased.

VIP PROGRAM

ZAW VIP Card holders benefit from access to exclusive VIP events, complimentary access to all participating institutions, priority to public events, discounts and other benefits. VIP access is granted upon invitation by the participating venues.

GETTING AROUND

Discover the map, follow curated geographical routes, or create your own personalised itinerary online based on your favourites. Explore institutions' audio guides created by Zurich Art Weekend in collaboration with Bloomberg Connects, and, when it's time for a break, follow Josh Johnson's personal recommendations alongside Zurich Art Weekend's classic addresses.

ACCESS

Get the free Public Pass to make the most of your weekend and profit from complimentary entry to Cabaret Voltaire, Helmhaus, Kuntshalle Zürich, LUMA Westbau, Migros Museum für Gegenwartskunst, National Museum Zurich and Shedhalle.

FRIDAY, JUNE 12

11:00 OFFICIAL START OF THE ZURICH ART WEEKEND 2026!

Join us for the 9th Edition of ZURICH ART WEEKEND from Friday, June 12th to Sunday, June 14th 2026. Immerse yourself in 3–days of curated exhibitions and events, free and open to all.

12:30 SYMPOSIUM CARING FOR NATURECULTURES

Collegium Helveticum
Across the globe, conservation confronts phenomena, melting glaciers as heritage, colonial landscapes, and ecologically embedded artworks, that exceed disciplinary boundaries. Responding to this structural divide, the symposium frames conservation as a cross-domain practice of care, asking what it means to care for cultural and natural worlds as entangled rather than separate.

11:00 PARTICIPATORY PERFORMANCE INSTRUCTIONS FOR USE

ZHdK Immersive Arts Space
Instructions for Use is a participatory XR performance-installation in which visitors engage with one another while wearing mixed reality headsets. Inspired by Fluxus performances and Bruce Nauman's ritualistic endurance works of the 1960s, the piece uses AI-generated voice instructions to guide participants through a series of unexpected actions and interactions.

The performance takes place in 20-minute sessions.

15:00 MUTTERLAND NUR DIR! AN INTERVENTION BY HULDA ZWINGLI AS PART OF THE FEMINIST STRIKE DAY

Art in Public Space (KiöR)
With a small intervention on the inscription, the «Vater-» becomes a «MUTterland», and the pedestal is transformed into a stage for all (feminists) who wish to stand upon it and leave their mark. The work invites the public to collectively evolve monuments and break down existing hierarchies. The capitalization of MUT in MUTterland is not a typo; it is intentional, designed to highlight the word MUT (the German word for courage).

15:00 ZHDK RESEARCH TOURS THE WESTERN GAZE AND OTHERED WORLDS

The tour starts at the ETH Bildarchiv (Image Archive), an inquiry to consider divisions between human and non-human species and amongst humans, examining how the West has constructed perceptions of the “other.” Through images and prints, an understanding is formed of how the scientific marker of progress reduces both plants and humans to objects of study, labour, and commodity. Its replication is also discussed through the question/absence of representation.

18:00 CLASSIC MEETS ART

Shedhalle × Tonhalle-Orchester Zürich at Shedhalle
In the “classic meets art” series, the musicians of the Tonhalle-Orchester Zürich fly out: right inside an art space, we’re sparking a dialogue between different art forms. This time, we are joining forces with Re-Props at the Shedhalle. Walls, plinths, benches and other installations are both works of art and architectural frameworks. The pieces performed pose questions: Which composers belong on a plinth and why not others? When does a musical work of art begin and when does it end? We move through the space together, exploring it through music and dialogue.

Mario Sala (b. 1965), "N.G. Face 04" (2017), ear paint, wood and aluminium, 250 x 384 x 4 cm, courtesy the artist and Julius Baer Art Collection, photography by Véronique Hoegger

Julius Baer is deeply committed to supporting and promoting the visual arts in Switzerland. The unique corporate collection – displayed in Julius Baer's meeting rooms, staff restaurants, offices, foyers and corridors around the globe – today comprises over 5'000 works from a wide variety of media and can be traced back to the early 20th century. Collecting art has always played a central role in the Baer family, and artworks were gradually acquired for the Bank's premises. On the initiative of Hans J. Baer (1927–2011), the Julius Baer Art Collection was established in 1981, guided by the firm belief that art in a business environment enhances the culture of discussion and is inspirational to employees and clients alike.

For over twenty-five years, collector Nicola Erni has followed her passion and formed one of the largest photography collections in private hands, combining two main areas of focus: photographs from the 1960s and 1970s with a focus on social change – Zeitgeist Glamour – and an extensive collection of fashion photographs from the 1930s to the present. Contemporary art is another significant branch of the collection and includes a broad range of media including paintings, sculptures, drawings, and monumental installations. Artists include Doug Aitken, Jean-Michel Basquiat, Mark Bradford, Elmgreen Dragset, Sylvie Fleury, Hassan Hajjaj, Duane Hanson, Rashid Johnson, Peter Lindbergh, Daido Moriyama, Beatriz Milhazes, Helmut Newton, Julian Schnabel, Cindy Sherman and Andy Warhol.

Starting in 1995, the Ringier Collection brings together a wide range of positions in photography, video, painting, drawing, objects, and installations since the late 1960s. The collecting activity, which has no national or media orientation, focuses particularly on intensively collecting groups of works by the artists represented and giving the works public exposure on company premises and through extensive loans to exhibitions, institutions and museums.

Over the last 20 years, Art at Swiss Re has emerged as one of the world's leading corporate art collections, reflecting the dynamic and innovative nature of the company. The focus of the collection are commissioned artworks, realized as site-specific projects that reflect the culture of the company, promote dialogue and enhance the buildings' emotional appeal.

These commissioned artworks help create a unique and unifying experience for visitors and employees in Swiss Re offices across the world.

Since 2016, NZZ Art has produced exclusive editions with internationally renowned artists exploring diverse artistic approaches. During Zurich Art Weekend, NZZ Art presents editions by Elza Sile and Valentin Carron. Elza Sile combines painting and sculpture using unconventional materials that blur the boundaries between image, object, and space. Valentin Carron reinterprets familiar forms to question originality and cultural meaning.

Together, the works explore materiality and perception in contemporary art.

Since 1924, Swiss Post has supported contemporary art, building a collection of around 500 works while going far beyond collecting. Driven by a strong commitment to contemporary Swiss art, Swiss Post plays a significant role among corporate art collections. Since its realignment in 2020, the art program has been based on three central pillars: the art collection, art in architecture, and partnerships with "Art in the Periphery" initiatives.

Instructions for Use is a performative XR-based installation involving visitors interacting in mixed reality headsets. AI agents analyze what cameras embedded in the headsets see and generate voiced-over instructions that provoke surprising actions/interactions between the visitors. Thus, a strange performance emerges in the mode of instructions executed by humans but imagined by machine.

SPECIAL PROJECTS

From Friday through Sunday, on the occasion of Zurich Art Weekend, schwarzescafé / LUMA Westbau will host a series of engaging events, including artist talks, book launches with artists and authors, panel discussions, and interdisciplinary talks.

These interdisciplinary talks pair internationally acclaimed contemporary artists with leading figures from other fields, exploring the evolving dialogue of interdisciplinary practices and the contributions of artists, curators, writers, scientists, and researchers who bridge these fields.

All talks are free and open to the public, with RSVP recommended. The full program is available online.

Events will take place at schwarzescafé / LUMA Westbau, Löwenbräukunst Limmatstrasse 270 8005 Zurich |

ZURICH ART WALKS

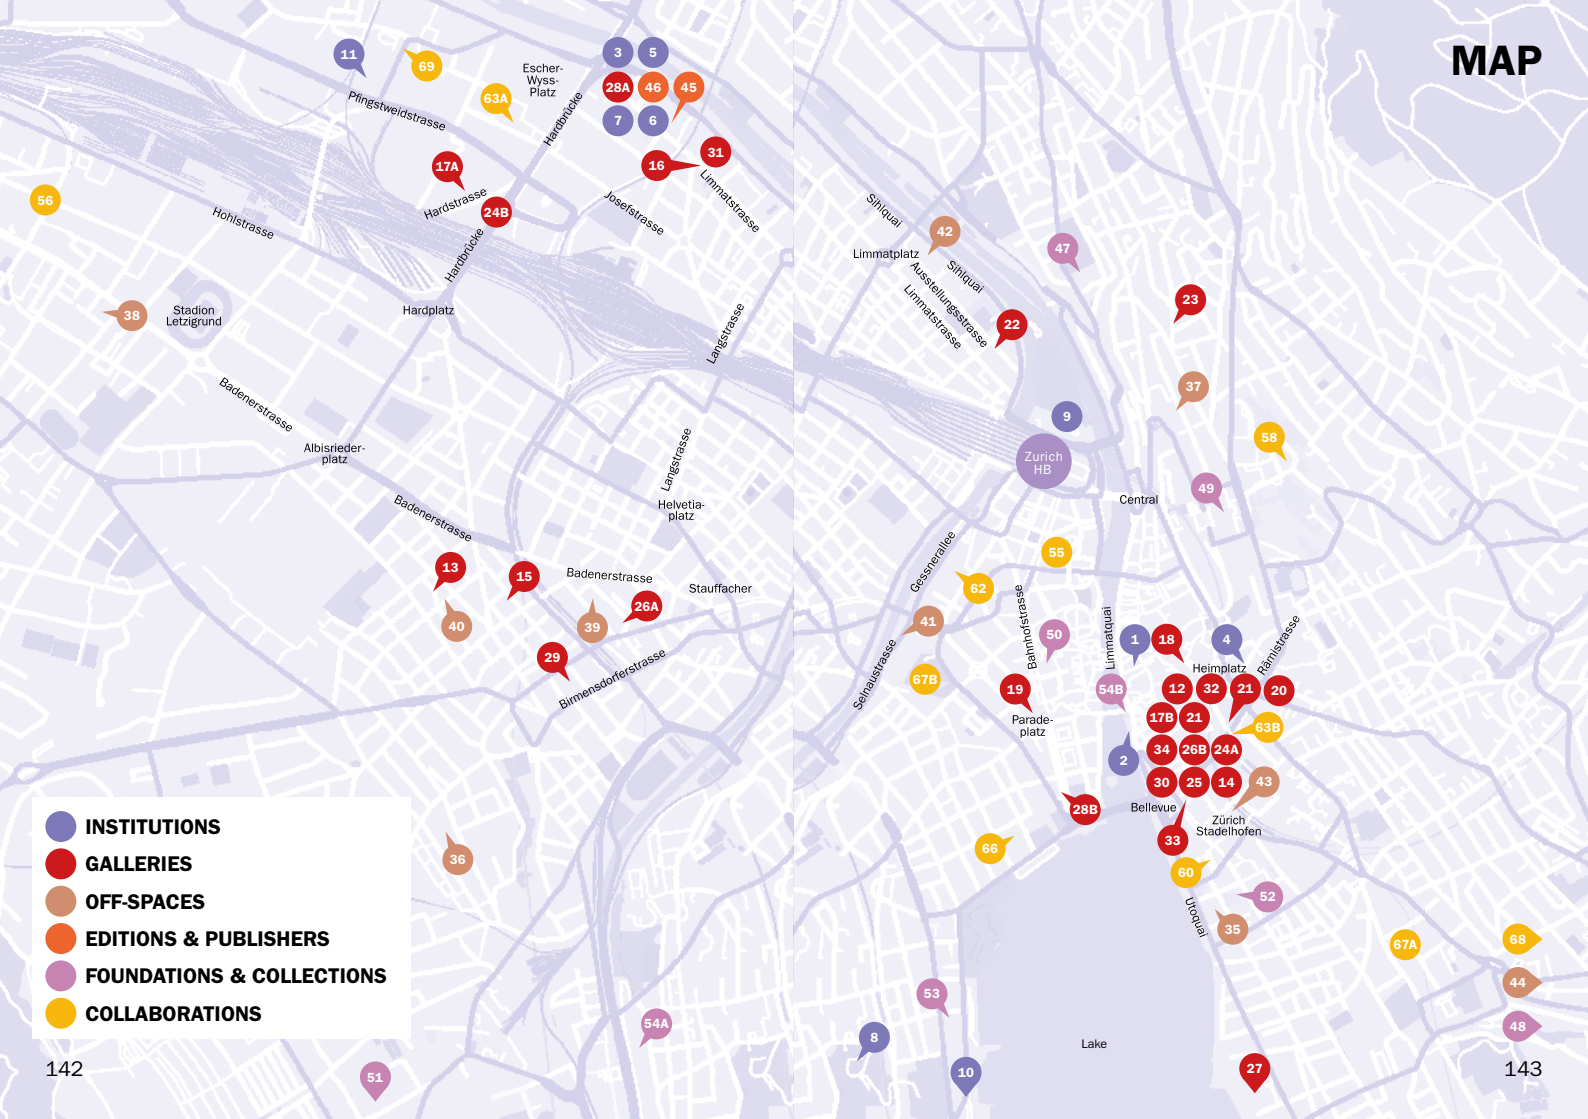

ZURICH ART WALKS is a curated program that invites local professional curators to guide the public through exhibitions across participating venues, typically structured by neighborhood or area for two hours. These walks provide accessible yet in-depth insights into artistic practices of the exhibited artists, curatorial frameworks, and the broader cultural landscape of Zurich.

The tours connect participants with institutions, galleries, and off-spaces, fostering new models of public engagement with contemporary art.

OUT & ABOUT WITH JOSH JOHNSON

JOSH JOHNSON (1987) IS A MULTIDISCIPLINARY ARTIST FROM LOS ANGELES WHOSE CHOREOGRAPHIC PRACTICE EXPLORES THE SPACE BETWEEN POST-CONTEMPORARY DANCE AND VIRTUOSITY. ROOTED IN CLASSICAL AND NEO-CLASSICAL FORMATION, HIS WORK ENGAGES DEEPLY WITH THEORY, STRUCTURED IMPROVISATION, AND THE CONCEPT OF THE SCORE. WITH A FOCUS ON COMPOSITION, JOHNSON'S PRACTICE INVESTIGATES HOW PHYSICAL TECHNIQUE, CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORKS, AND HISTORICAL FORMS CAN BE REASSEMBLED TO CREATE NEW PERFORMANCE LANGUAGES.

Artist in Hotel Residence

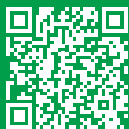

At 25hours Hotel Langstrasse, artists from around the world are invited to live and work on site, using the hotel's Atelier as their creative base.

This summer, four international artists will be in residence during July and August. Each residency ends with an Open Studio showcasing the work created during their stay.
